RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

1Q 2026 FINANCIAL SUMMARY

The key financial summary data below for the three months ended 31 March 2026 of the Group ("1Q2026 Financial Summary") have not been audited or reviewed by the independent auditors of the Group or any other independent accountants and may be subject to adjustments if audited and reviewed. As such, the financial information therein may differ from future audited or reviewed financial information. There can be no assurance that, had the financial information been audited or reviewed, the financial information would not have changed, that any such changes would not be material, or that such financial information was prepared and presented in a manner consistent with the accounting policies normally adopted by the Group and applied in its audited consolidated financial statements.

The 1Q2026 Financial Summary should not be relied upon by potential investors to provide the same quality of information as information that has been subject to an audit or review. The 1Q2026 Financial Summary should not be considered as indicative of the expected financial condition or results of operations of the Group for the full year ending 31 December 2026. US$ millions, unless otherwise stated	1Q 2026	1Q 2025	YoY AER
Value of new business (VONB)	1,757	1,497	17%
VONB margin	56.0%	57.5%	(1.5) pps
Annualised new premiums (ANP)	3,152	2,617	20%

SUMMARY FOR THE FIRST QUARTER

AIA achieved a 17% increase in VONB to US$1,757 million in the first quarter of 2026 compared to the first quarter of 2025, with both our agency and partnership distribution channels delivering VONB growth.

AIA China's strong momentum in the second half of 2025 has continued into the first quarter of 2026 with VONB growth of 32% compared to the first quarter of 2025, driven by strong performances from both our differentiated Premier Agency and selective bancassurance business. While we saw strong demand for our long-term savings solutions, our focus on advising customers across their financial needs delivered 23% growth in VONB from protection products in the first quarter.

Our Premier Agency model is fundamental to the ongoing success of AIA China. Recruitment momentum remained strong, with a further increase of more than 20% in the number of new recruits, while we also saw strong increases in productivity from both our new and existing agents compared with the first quarter of 2025.

AIA Hong Kong delivered VONB growth of 21% in the first quarter of 2026 compared to the first quarter of 2025, driven by both the domestic and Mainland Chinese visitor (MCV) customer segments, and across both our agency and partnership channels, supported by our flagship product launched in the second half of last year. We saw strong year-on-year growth from the independent financial adviser (IFA) and broker channel, and an increase compared to the fourth quarter of 2025.

AIA Thailand recorded a VONB decrease of 12% in the first quarter of 2026 compared to the first quarter of 2025 due to an exceptionally high base in the first quarter of 2025, as previously highlighted. While traditional protection remained the largest product type in the first quarter of 2026, higher sales of unit-linked products led to a 15% year-on-year increase in ANP while VONB margin remained at above 90%.

AIA Singapore reported positive VONB growth compared with a high base in the first quarter of 2025. Both the bancassurance and IFA and broker channels delivered excellent VONB growth, supported by strong demand for high-net-worth propositions.

AIA Malaysia saw improving growth momentum with an increase in VONB in the first quarter of 2026, supported by both the agency and bancassurance channels. We continued to see quarter-on-quarter VONB growth through the agency channel, with increasing numbers of active agents and agent productivity in the first quarter of 2026.

Other Markets reported positive VONB growth, with strong growth from our businesses in Vietnam and the Philippines partly offset by a decline in Australia and Indonesia, while Tata AIA Life, our joint venture in India, continued to deliver strong VONB growth for the three months ended 31 March 2026.

Overall, ANP grew by 20% to US$3,152 million in the first quarter of 2026 compared to the first quarter of 2025, while VONB margin remained strong at 56.0%. Total weighted premium income (TWPI) increased by 17% to US$14,865 million in the first quarter of 2026 compared to the first quarter of 2025.
