INTENTION TO PUBLISH UNAUDITED QUARTERLY OPERATIONAL DATA

AIA Group Limited (the “Company”) announces that, as part of its ongoing focus on improving transparency for shareholders, it intends to publish interim updates (the “Quarterly Updates”) of selected operational data for the quarters of its financial year ended 28 February (the “Q1 Data”) and 31 August (the “Q3 Data”).

The Quarterly Updates will be in addition to the Company’s obligations to report its financial results for the half-year and full year and will continue until further notice.

Investors’ attention is drawn to the following proposed key dates in respect of 2011:

- Q1 Data on 18 April 2011
- Annual General Meeting on 26 May 2011
- Half-year Results on or around 29 July 2011
- Q3 Data around mid-October 2011

Expected dates of publication in future years will be made available on the Company’s website at the appropriate time.

The Quarterly Updates will present the following unaudited data relating to the Company's operations as a whole:

- Value Of New Business
- Annualised New Premium
- Total Weighted Premium Income

The Company expects to provide the above data for the relevant quarter and the comparative quarter for the previous year. The Quarterly Updates will be based on the unaudited management accounts of the Company.
